

Strong Emotion Soul Tie prayer:

First give thanks and praise to ABBA Father and our Savior Yeshua

Father Yehovah, I come before You to repent for each way I may have acted outside of your love with (name the person). I repent, I utterly renounce, and I sever association, covenant agreements and attachments with every soul-tie that I have created or that I allowed to be created between me and (name the person).

I break the power and cancel the assignment of this conduit from both ends, from my end and __(name)_____ 's end. I break the power and cancel the assignment of every spirit of fear, stress, anxiety, (add any other spirits that attached perhaps anger, bitterness, sexual impurity, etc.), that came through these soul-ties. Father, through Your power and authority and under the subjection of the powerful shed blood of Yeshua (Jesus of Nazareth) I command every spirit that has used this conduit to be cast into the pit and remain there until Judgment Day and for and every soul-tie created to be disseminated to be null and void. I unplug myself and (name) from each other. I ask You, Yehovah, to refocus us to depend upon You and to draw life from Yeshua rather than drawing from each other.

I apply the precious blood of my Savior, Yeshua, (Jesus of Nazareth) to every quark and cell of my body, my soul, and my spirit where these spirits have touched or resided and I ask You, Father, to heal and cleanse those quarks and cells.

Ruach HaKodesh, (Holy Spirit) I ask you to hover over and fill every quark and cell of my body, soul and spirit where these spirits have resided and spread their lies, and I ask you to replace every lie with Your Truth and bring peace and calm to my life. Help me to receive Truth from You, that is my desire.

I release (name the person) to live his/her life under your authority, Father, - for You to work in his/her life as You choose. My desire is to live according to Your principles and Your precepts. Help me to be wise in my choices and to make godly decisions from this point forward.

My Creator and my Father, I speak Your Shalom, healing and health to the very core of my body, soul and spirit. By Your power and authority, Yehovah, and by the precious shed blood of Yeshua HaMachiach, I pray this work be sealed in Yeshua's mighty name.
